Two Hills Slayer Of Babe And Little Niece Falls Into Net Of Police

Harry Shire, Sought For Murder Of Infant And Niece At Farm Home, Captured By Camrose Constable

Wanted for the murder of his seven-month-old babe and his ten-year-old niece at his farm home near Duvernay, 40 miles north of Vegreville, last Thursday night, Harry Shire, 33-year-old Polish farmer, was captured single-handed by Constable Lionel Broadway of the Camrose detachment of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police in a clump of bush just west of Killam about 10 p.m. Tuesday.

Police credited the keen observation and intuition of Mrs. Noren, of the Horseshoe Cafe at Killam, for the capture of the fugitive who had eluded police, a civilian posse and dogs which have been seeking him since last Friday morning.

LOOKS CLOSER

Shire, unshaven and dishevelled, walked into Mrs. Noren's cafe last Tuesday evening and offered supper. With a woman's keen insight she noticed something about the stranger that attracted her attention to him. As she looked closer she thought that she noticed a resemblance between the man who had ordered supper and a picture of the man wanted for the murder of a babe and a niece. It is reported that the man eating in her cafe was the murderer sought by police.

Shire immediately phoned Inspector Tucker of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police at Vegreville, who dispatched two men, under Sergeant Heacock, and Constable Broadway to proceed to Killam and attempt to make the arrest.

Broadway arrived at Killam first, and taking up the trail of the alleged killer, arrested him in a clump of bush about one quarter of a mile outside the town. It is reported that Shire, who was unarmed, surrendered without a struggle.

Reports that Shire, sullen and silent, had finally confessed to the crime.

Shire was taken to the city by plane from Calgary Wednesday afternoon.

Arrives

of Ontario, who arrived in the city by plane from Calgary Wednesday afternoon.

FOUR MAYORS GREETERS OF M. HEPBURN

Ontario Premier and Party Land At Airport On Way North

Bronzed, smiling and recovered from the sore throat with which he was afflicted at Calgary on Thursday, Premier Mitchell E. Heppburn, of Ontario, stepped from the giant airplane tour in which he is taking a holiday tour of the port at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday.

With Premier Heppburn were J. P. Bickell, Toronto mining magnate and owner of the plane; Bernard E. Smith, noted Wall Street operator; and Mayor Jimmy Twiss.

Mayor J. W. Fry, of this city; Mayor George C. Miller, of Vancouver; Mayor Robert M. Pinder, of Saskatoon; and Mayor Andy Davidson, of Calgary, formed a welcoming committee of four that stepped forward immediately the plane had come to a halt.

TALKS NO POLITICS
Also at the airport were Capt. James Bell, manager of the tour; W. C. Owens, district superintendent Canadian National Railways; Frank Popper, representing the Chamber of Commerce; and Joseph McCallum, representing the Bank of Nova Scotia.

"You can also very definitely say that I am here to form a political party or to have anything to do with politics. I am here on a holiday and only on a holiday."

Reprising a question, Premier Heppburn said the party planned to fly north as far as Dawson City today, and return to Vancouver and back east through Calgary, not touching this city.

"I will be in the north from two to three weeks," he said. "At this time I am definitely on a holiday and not keeping to any set schedule."

Premier Heppburn said he was glad to have given his first public appearance in his new role.

"I am going north on a holiday and for a good time," he said. "My, but I never saw so many cameras at I have on this trip. I would think they would have been worn out."

Gloating at the impressive array of mayors, Premier Heppburn commented that he had never seen so many gathered at one time, and that, on such far-flung points.

A large number of Edmontonians gathered at the airport to see the arrival.

British United Press, Exclusive Cable to The Bulletin
WASHINGTON, July 20.—Capable of bringing down airplanes at high speed six miles high in the air, and of destroying ships, the new electrically operated rapid fire artillery has been secretly developed by U.S. army and navy experts, the British United Press learned today. The new electrically equipped and operated guns are said to be far superior to anything in the armaments of foreign nations, and according to high army officials they will materially alter the conception of many army heads as to the value of aircraft as a bombing factor in rear areas. Exhaustive tests have shown the new guns to be highly effective, and so rapid in operation that it would be virtually impossible for aircraft to fly through any barrage they laid down.

Forest Fires Raging On Vancouver Island, Forbes Landing In Danger

10,000-ACRE BLAZE CAUSES GREAT DAMAGE

People Flee Homes—Escape In Boats—Dry Timber Hazard

CAMPBELL RIVER, B.C., July 20.—Word was expected almost immediately Tuesday morning that the forest fires on Vancouver Island, which have been raging since the morning of July 18, had been brought under control.

One building, which British Columbia forest branch officials in this east coast Vancouver Island town said was a "rather crude little garage," had already been destroyed. Fragmentary short-wave radio reports from the fire front to the forest office said other buildings—the main hotel and auto camp—had been evacuated.

FLAMES BLOCK ROADS

An hour before the garage burned Mrs. James Forbes and her two daughters left by highway for the Elk River Timber Company camp eight, a short distance the other side of Forbes Landing from here. Forbes officials said they reached there safely, but since then the road they took had been cut off by flames.

After the flames attacked the garage and hope for the road to the Forbes Landing buildings seemed lost, the crew of the motor launch left at the resort made arrangements for quick evacuation, but remained on the island for a few days in hopes they might save the hotel.

They found all highways out of the settlement blocked by flames. They up a motorboat so they could cross lower Campbell lake if the fire threatened them in a crisis.

Forest exits to the huge, 10,000 acre fire, however, spreading in a semi-circle almost around Forbes Landing, itself and extending towards Campbell river.

NANAIMO IN SMOKE

Seventy miles south of here Nanaimo lay under heavy smoke from the fires. Men were ordered to leave their homes and to take to the open. A fire in the forest near Nanaimo to reported spreading rapidly.

Vancouver Island is in Vancouver forest district, which forest branch officials said is "the worst condition of any section of the province. More than 1,000 men fought the Campbell river fire and 12,000 men fought the Vancouver Island and the lower mainland.

FIRE ALONG COAST

From British Columbia to Oregon, and from the Pacific coastline to western Montana, estimated 800 fires were burning, some of them out of control. An estimated 3,000 firefighters fought them. The burned and burning area totalled about 100,000 acres.

Two hazards of low humidity and abnormally dry timber helped the fighters in all attacks.

Youth On Tour

Ill At Rupert:

Flown By Plane

Robert Robertson, son of Dr. D. B. Robertson, of Toronto, who was flying a biplane over the Rupert River mine area, is in hospital in Prince George recovering from an appendectomy performed early last week, according to Dr. Robertson.

Twice stated that he flew into Finlay Forks 150 miles north of Prince George to pick up the boy and bring him back to Prince George for medical attention early last week. The lad was 16 years old and was making a tour of northern British Columbia with Count Nicholas.

Youngest Pilot

Has First Hop

At City Field

Believed to be the youngest student pilot in the Dominion, 15-year-old Billy Austin, son of Joseph Austin, RCAF garage man, made his first airplane flight here recently. Instructor A. J. Macdonald, who was handling the second set of controls in the training machine. Record of being the youngest ever to fly solo is held by Thornton, 14, son of United Air Transport's pilot, Charlie. Thornton, 14, was the youngest to fly solo in the world in 1933.

Young Tread, 14, son of United Air Transport's pilot, Charlie. Thornton, 14, was the youngest to fly solo in the world in 1933.

Webworm Army

CALGARY, July 20.—An army of thousands on the March, the fast-traveling webworms, is leaving a trail of wilting stalks, denuded foliage in its path. Menace of vegetable and flower gardens, the webworms were first reported on the outskirts of Calgary, to the northeast and to the west, warning over mail gardens. Generally, they are not a threat to grain crops.

Noted German Authority Says Britain Can Regard World In Peace

By WEBB MILLER

British Cable Press, Reuters Cable to The Edmonton Bulletin.

LONDON, July 20.—"Today Britain may survey the world around her without feeling anxious about her position."

The volume, entitled "Heritage of Yesterday," surveys in non-partisan fashion the rise and decline of the Great Powers since Napoleon's time to 1918.

NOT SERIOUS

Dr. Kuhlmann, who remains in Berlin, "differences with Italy need not be taken very seriously, as the joints in the glittering armor of that country are known to be weak enough to render it necessary for her to preserve her sense of equilibrium."

"For all practical purposes Italy is still wholly dependent on France and Germany, and the war we cut off the could not have been under modern conditions, or that reason alone, present-day considerations oblige her to keep on good terms with Britain, and thereby retain her power in the Mediterranean."

AVOIDS QUESTION

It is considered significant that Dr. Kuhlmann, who remains in the German Diplomatic Service here, under the Nazis, does not raise the question of colonies in his book, despite its remarkably wide scope.

Desiring Anglo-German friendship, he says, "The conclusion of the Anglo-German Naval Agreement by Adolf Hitler, limiting the strength of the German fleet to 35 per cent of that of the British one, has removed one of the main causes of friction between the two countries, and has paved the way to a better understanding."

MAY REVEAL ALLIANCE

The writer does not exclude the possibility of a revival of the old German-Russian alliance, but Russia ever reverts to her age-old policy of seeking an outlet to the sea, and the British Empire, which controls the old objective, the Turkish Straits, will be a constant menace to her.

While confident Britain still is in a strong position, he points out, "Naval and air supremacy is a vital necessity for the United Kingdom, as the brilliant advantages enjoyed by a land power involve corresponding responsibilities. The British Isles, therefore, certainly will withstand a blockade at sea for more than a few weeks without succumbing through starvation."

Share of Mary Donohue's Legacy

On the court's decision will depend the awarding of $200,000 under the terms of the will of Mary Hannah Donohue who died here December 10, 1904.

There are two claimants for the share of the estate, one the Calgary and the Alberta Protestantism, Edmonton, sponsored by the Orange Provincial Grand Lodge of Alberta.

DIRECTS ISSUE

Mr. Justice J. S. Shepherd, sitting in chambers, Tuesday directed an issue in the matter of the Orange organization to be named as plaintiffs and the Trust and Guarantee Company, executor, and the Woods Christian Home, Edmonton, as defendants.

After providing for relatives, Mary Donohue provided that the remainder of the estate was to be paid to "some Protestant institute in the province of Alberta having for its object the care and education of orphans or destitute children, the selection to be made by my executor in its sole discretion."

The trust company appointed Woods Christian Home, as beneficiary, but the executor's appointment was sought before Mr. Justice Shepherd Tuesday James A. Ross, Edmonton solicitor, opposed the motion on behalf of the Alberta Protestantism. He claimed the Edmonton Institute was the only exclusive Protestant home in Alberta.

The Woods Christian Home, he claimed, were undenominational.

LONDON, July 20.—"Today Britain may survey the world around her without feeling anxious about her position."

The volume, entitled "Heritage of Yesterday," surveys in non-partisan fashion the rise and decline of the Great Powers since Napoleon's time to 1918.

NOT SERIOUS

Dr. Kuhlmann, who remains in Berlin, "differences with Italy need not be taken very seriously, as the joints in the glittering armor of that country are known to be weak enough to render it necessary for her to preserve her sense of equilibrium."

"For all practical purposes Italy is still wholly dependent on France and Germany, and the war we cut off the could not have been under modern conditions, or that reason alone, present-day considerations oblige her to keep on good terms with Britain, and thereby retain her power in the Mediterranean."

AVOIDS QUESTION

It is considered significant that Dr. Kuhlmann, who remains in the German Diplomatic Service here, under the Nazis, does not raise the question of colonies in his book, despite its remarkably wide scope.

Desiring Anglo-German friendship, he says, "The conclusion of the Anglo-German Naval Agreement by Adolf Hitler, limiting the strength of the German fleet to 35 per cent of that of the British one, has removed one of the main causes of friction between the two countries, and has paved the way to a better understanding."

MAY REVEAL ALLIANCE

The writer does not exclude the possibility of a revival of the old German-Russian alliance, but Russia ever reverts to her age-old policy of seeking an outlet to the sea, and the British Empire, which controls the old objective, the Turkish Straits, will be a constant menace to her.

While confident Britain still is in a strong position, he points out, "Naval and air supremacy is a vital necessity for the United Kingdom, as the brilliant advantages enjoyed by a land power involve corresponding responsibilities. The British Isles, therefore, certainly will withstand a blockade at sea for more than a few weeks without succumbing through starvation."

Share of Mary Donohue's Legacy

On the court's decision will depend the awarding of $200,000 under the terms of the will of Mary Hannah Donohue who died here December 10, 1904.

There are two claimants for the share of the estate, one the Calgary and the Alberta Protestantism, Edmonton, sponsored by the Orange Provincial Grand Lodge of Alberta.

DIRECTS ISSUE

Mr. Justice J. S. Shepherd, sitting in chambers, Tuesday directed an issue in the matter of the Orange organization to be named as plaintiffs and the Trust and Guarantee Company, executor, and the Woods Christian Home, Edmonton, as defendants.

After providing for relatives, Mary Donohue provided that the remainder of the estate was to be paid to "some Protestant institute in the province of Alberta having for its object the care and education of orphans or destitute children, the selection to be made by my executor in its sole discretion."

The trust company appointed Woods Christian Home, as beneficiary, but the executor's appointment was sought before Mr. Justice Shepherd Tuesday James A. Ross, Edmonton solicitor, opposed the motion on behalf of the Alberta Protestantism. He claimed the Edmonton Institute was the only exclusive Protestant home in Alberta.

The Woods Christian Home, he claimed, were undenominational.

LOS ANGELES, July 20.—A sentence of 10 years silence concerning the private life of Simone Simon, French film actress, was imposed on Sandra Martin, the star's former secretary, when she was sentenced to a state prison term Tuesday by Superior Judge A. A. Scott.

She was charged at the time of arrest on 10 counts of forgery and 10 counts of grand theft involving purchases of $10,000 worth of merchandise with funds from Miss Simone's bank account.

ALBERTA GRAIN POOL SEEKING GOOD PRICE

Ottawa To Be Asked For Low Sale 87½ Cents Bushel

CALGARY, July 20.—A request that the Dominion government set the initial payment on wheat delivered to the wheat board in 1938-39 season at a figure not lower than 87½ cents a bushel was embodied in a resolution unanimously passed at the concluding session of the Alberta Wheat Pool Executive Council here Tuesday. C. Jensen, president of the council, was in the chair and L. W. Hutchinson, Calgary, chairman of the Alberta Wheat Pool, was assistant chairman.

The council as a unit of the Canadian Chamber of Agriculture, endorsed the principles enunciated in the policies approved by the Empire Producers Conference held at Sydney, New South Wales, March 28 to April 7, 1938, and decided to insist in every way possible towards the attainment of those principles.

The following members were elected to represent the various divisions of the Co-operative Council: W. C. McKeown, Lethbridge, livestock division; New South Wales, March 28 to April 7, 1938, and decided to insist in every way possible towards the attainment of those principles.

DOMINION IS ANTICIPATING BIG CONTRACT

No One Company Will Dominate Huge Deal With Britain

OTTAWA, July 20.—When the mission from the British air ministry reaches Canada within a few days, its members will find definite steps taken by the Canadian Aircraft construction industry to handle business expected to range as high as $250,000,000 on a long term basis.

Meeting here Tuesday the industrial members of the Commercial Air Transport and Manufacturers Association of Canada put the final touches to plans which are preliminary to creating a co-ordinating company whose function will be to act as their joint intermediary between the aircraft construction concerns and the British government.

Several plans have been canvassed by the British air ministry with a view to establishing the joint co-ordinating company. None has so far been finalized in the mind of the British government, which is waiting to see what definite structure it has been found desirable that in the contemplated new concern no one company or group should hold a dominating position.

Indications from the United Kingdom are that the present need of the British air ministry for flying service, types of machines, flying boats and torpedo bombers, and the Canadian industry is in a position to supply, and its members could go ahead with them almost immediately.

ROUTE UNKNOWN TO OTHERS, BOY DOES SAD JOB

TORONTO, July 20.—Allen Robinson, 18, did not smile when customers greeted him today at the Vegreville district where he delivered evening editions of a Toronto newspaper. The paper was the story of the death of his brother, Peter, 18, electrocuted as the aftermath of a fight in a police station.

Investigations have been conducted by Edmonton officials, and it is believed that the disease may be encephalomyelitis but another brain ailment, caused by a virus that forms on grass that horses have been eating. Similar conditions have been reported in the Lloyminster area.

Trustees Consider Scheme For South Side Service

Semi-Composite High School To Be New Scheme

If at all possible, a semi-composite high school, using the Seena Commercial, Garneau High and Strathcona High schools, as proposed by Trustee Walter Morrish, will be organized, it was unanimously decided by school trustees at a meeting of the board, Tuesday evening.

Who's Who

Dr. Morrish said it might take some engineering to put the theory of a composite high school into practice instead of buying more typewriters to accommodate the increasing number of students. It could be worked out so that the commercial department would be a sub-division of Seena high, by amalgamating the whole three schools.

"You would then have the nucleus of a composite school," Supt. A. A. McKee stated, "and I am all in favor of it."

In fact, he said, he was suggesting such a plan? Armour Ford asked Dr. Morrish.

McKee agreed.

"Well, I can't think of a better reason than that the superintendent agrees with it," the doctor retorted.

"We could give better service to the students," Supt. McKee explained, "and easily make the options available. We could make the building for the 120 to 150 students who constitute the overflow, and have equal the class loads between the schools."

Chairman A. E. Ottewill also voiced himself as being in favor of the plan, and instructed Mr. McKee to prepare a report on the details in connection with such an arrangement.

Certain reconditioning of the old Garneau high school building will be necessary, and the acting buildings superintendent was asked to report on this. It was decided that the commercial work would be taken in the old Garneau building while the Garneau High would be housed on the top floor of Garneau public school. Seena high will remain in its present accommodation.

H. B. Doughty, former assistant teacher at King Edward intermediate, was appointed principal of Calder school, taking the place of C. Frith, who went to Eastwood. Mr. J. Irwin, in the household science department, will be full time, while Mrs. E. M. Finlayson will continue as part-time instructor.

NAMED TO STAFF
J. A. Fraser was appointed to the King Edward staff, T. W. Blacklock to Calder, Miss J. Oliver to McCauley, Miss J. Hewson to King Edward, Miss M. Dunlop to H. A. Gray, Miss V. Zimmer to Spruce Avenue, Miss M. Moroney to McCauley.

Suggestions of J. Booth, fire marshal, that a fire escape be built from the floor of the Glenora school, in order to supply an exit from that floor, were dealt with, and a wooden fire escape, on the north side of the building, together with structural alterations, including a Kalomine (fireproof) door, will be built at the approximate cost of $200.

Board meetings were adjourned until August 29, subject to the order of the chair. Minutes of the Edmonton schools will be resumed on September 6.

Thousands See Parade 'n Everything

CYCLIST DIES WHEN STRUCK BY CAR HERE

C. C. Thomas, 48, School Teacher, Fatally Injured Tuesday

Seven hours after he was knocked from his bicycle by a car on Jasper avenue at 39 street, C. C. Thomas, 48, of 4413 A Avenue, died in the hospital from injuries sustained when he was struck by a car on Tuesday, July 19, at 10 p.m. Tuesday, and Thomas died at 10 a.m. Wednesday. Driver of the car, Charles Hales, 323 A Street, was arrested Wednesday forenoon and charged with manslaughter.

Thomas suffered from crushing injuries to his chest, a smashed shoulder and brain injuries as well as severe cuts about the neck and face, doctors attending him reported.

THROUGH GLASS
Police said he had been hurled through the window of the car which struck him. They said that Hales told them that he was driving through the windshield of the car, he struck immediately, police said. He stopped there with no light on the bicycle.

Thomas, late Tuesday evening, told police that he was riding east on Jasper and did not remember anything except that he was struck by the car.

RUSHED TO HOSPITAL
A large crowd witnessed the accident and gathered afterwards. Police said the injured man was rushed to the Royal Alexandra hospital in the car of Percy Page, who was passing at the time.

Thomas was a teacher at McCauley school.

Cyril Crandall Thomas was born in Beecher, Lambton county, Ont., the son of a minister. He graduated from Hamilton, Ont. Normal school in 1914 and was principal from 1914-18 at North Ward Public school, Port Arthur. In 1918 he married Lucy Gladys Bowles of Sombra, Lambton county, Ont.

Coming west shortly after his marriage Mr. Thomas taught school in Vancouver for a year, then at Chigman, Alta., and for four years at Strome before coming to Edmonton.

He was a member of Sambre Lodge, A.F. and A.M., the Alberta Teachers' Alliance, and the Edmonton Teachers' Association.

He leaves his wife, one daughter, Mildred Gladys; three sons, Harold J. Cyril K., and Donald H.; his mother, Mrs. H. A. Thomas, and one sister, Mrs. J. H. Thomas, and one brother, Clyde of Toronto, Ont., and one sister, Mrs. J. H. Thomas.

Funeral arrangements, to be announced, will be in charge of Rev. W. R. and McGraw.

The Inquiring Reporter

Edmonton's 60th annual summer fair opened its gates to fannaceous for the third day today and as the crowds milled through the gates, The Bulletin's Inquiring Reporter was on hand to ask: "Well, what brings you here?"

Here are the answers:
HUNTER PRIMER, salesman. Unhand me, greyhound lion-hunt! I have three dollars and a half and six bits in my pocket and when I get through watching the police tonight, I expect to have pretty close to two hundred bucks in my jeans. If you promise to spread them around, I can let you in on a couple of sure bets.

JACK BAKER, farmer. I want to see the midway and the stock exhibits. I understand that they have some mighty fine livestock on show this year and I always get a kick out of the midway.

MRS. M. PURCELL, housekeeper. I want to see the manufacturers' building exhibits and the school exhibits and then I'm going to the midway to ride on some of the rides and see if I can win a couple of blankets and a bag of dog.

HERBERT WITMER, salesman. Just want to see the exhibition, my job; I just want to see the exhibition, I'll take it all, as a collector and enjoy everything.

LOIS STEELE, stenographer. I want to see the art exhibit. They tell me they have some fine art exhibits. Then I'm going to see the handicrafts exhibit, too.

FOREST FIRES
SMOLDER AS
TIMBER DRIES

Forest fires in the northern section of the province, while mostly in hand, are smoldering in some sections where they were so prevalent several weeks ago, according to officials of the forestry branch.

No new outbreaks have been reported, although several ground fires that had smoldered since extinguished have flared up to some extent.

An official of the branch inspected the northern section of the province and saw no signs of such fires flaring up in the Calling Lake district. Arrangements were completed for watching the situation and assigning any necessary fire-fighting to the task of fighting the fires.

Generally speaking, the menace has all but disappeared and preparations are being advanced for handling the fall harvest and when it arrives.

C.I.L. Official

BRIGADIER IN HIGH PRAISE LOCAL UNITS

Edmonton Troops Said To Be Good Standard Of Militiamen

Edmonton's Calgary units at Sarsen camp this summer made "an excellent showing," according to Brig. G. H. Prakes, V.C., D.S.O., military commander of Military District No. 13, who arrived here on Wednesday morning at headquarters at Calgary to inspect the 10th Army Troops company at the Prince of Wales army camp on Wednesday night.

"Units of Edmonton Garrison throughout the entire training period and the show battle, made an excellent showing," he said. Despite a good deal of rain they carried out their duties in an efficient and soldierly manner.

"I thought they were an exceptionally good standard of militiamen."

Saying that he was always pleased to visit this city, where he has so many comrades of the Great War, Brig. Prakes, who was the highest award in the gift of His Majesty "For Valour" during the battle of Passchendaele, said he hoped to pay a visit to the annual Edmonton Exhibition on Wednesday afternoon.

"You know I am very fond of horses," said Brig. Prakes, which is not surprising, since he served in the mounted forces of the new 5th Canadian Mounted Rifles.

Brig. Prakes is accompanied by Major R. Broadbent, G.S.O. of M.D. No. 13, and M. Chase, paymaster.

They plan to return to Calgary on Thursday.

Continuing the supply of ideal exhibition weather, Edmonton's temperatures were holding up and rain clouds were still absent from the blue sky as Wednesday afternoon approached.

At 9 a.m. Wednesday, with the thermometer at 69 above, the forecast was once again "fair and warm."

Tuesday's highest mark touched the 80 above line at 3 p.m. for the morning reading for the day, while overnight the mercury stayed well away from the chilly brackets, the lowest reading up to 9 a.m. Wednesday being 58 above, at 3 a.m.

No rain fell in the near northern areas during Tuesday and Wednesday night, while temperatures at 8:30 a.m. Wednesday ranged from 50 above at Mirror Landing to 58 above at Fort St. John.

NEW PACT CAN BE CANCELLED CROSS STAYS

New referendum agreement between the Dominion and provincial governments providing for the monthly payment to the province by the Dominion, of $125,000 on account of direct relief, has been received, according to Hon. Dr. W. W. Croft, minister of health and in charge of the new agreement.

The new agreement is exactly the same as the old, except that it contains a provision whereby it can be cancelled at any time, said Dr. Croft.

Also the new pact reduces the Dominion's grant from $150,000 to $125,000 a feature which in fact has been effective for several months.

The new agreement was submitted both the province and the cities and was approved by the city council, but it was not against the out, but they spoke in vain and the $150,000 a month shall continue effective.

The relief checks from Ottawa were delayed for two months but are now up to schedule.

"Things look good in Yellowknife," according to Dr. W. W. Croft, who is a member of the Yellowknife district. Among the passengers in the plane which left Yellowknife on Tuesday were Dr. Croft and his old time prospector, who is in town to dispose of some claims on which he was believed to have made one of the claims were Frank Corney, and A. Calvert.

TRUSTEE ASKS 5-YEAR PLAN FOR SCHOOLS

Trustee Dr. Morriah Declares Present Situation "Is Mess"

Notre of member of Trustee Dr. Walter Morriah, M.A., who has been tabling for several weeks at the meetings of the Edmonton Public School Board, regarding the petitioning of the provincial department of education to appoint a commission of three to report on the financial, administrative, educational, medical and plant maintenance policy of the board, was heard Tuesday night.

Dr. Morriah further declared his motion by explaining at length the conditions which should be looked into by such a commission.

"It is not unfamiliar to appoint an efficient expert to investigate the work of a business, and we, as trustees of the Edmonton Public School Board, are one of the biggest businesses in the province, turning over about $1,000,000 per year," Dr. Morriah stated.

"I am not unfamiliar to appoint an efficient expert to investigate the work of a business, and we, as trustees of the Edmonton Public School Board, are one of the biggest businesses in the province, turning over about $1,000,000 per year," Dr. Morriah stated.

FUTURE PLAN

"We follow the policy of the government, which is to make a contribution to the organization, and the people have for the little to say. It would be better for us to have men from the department of education and the University, men who know something of the law, structure, to investigate conditions, and present us with a plan for five years, which we could follow," he continued.

He said he had been embarrassed on several occasions in the past few weeks when local business men and doctors and lawyers had come to him regarding the non-payment of building costs for the school plan for five years, which we could follow," he continued.

SERIOUS MATTER

"This is a serious matter and the teachers should be concerned about it. I am not familiar to appoint an efficient expert to investigate the work of a business, and we, as trustees of the Edmonton Public School Board, are one of the biggest businesses in the province, turning over about $1,000,000 per year," Dr. Morriah stated.

Well, well! What's that? A rose between two thorns or the like and the short of it is that the "Big Parade Chief" Doug Groulx bodyguard, Almy Ray, Bud Briggs, smallest cop of the 1938 Jubilee Exhibition parade on Tuesday was snatched standing between Staff Inspector Matt Blackwood, the biggest cop on the parade, and Almy Doug Groulx, parade organizer and marshal. Come to think of it, the ad. must have decided to get between the two men mountain for protection.
